

SPOTTED

IN London: Johnny Vegas smoking cigarettes in the Malmison Bar, sitting near actor Chris Langham. Comedy king Peter Kay reading a paper at Cafe Rouge, Hampstead, Girls Aloud sex siren Sarah Harding looking glam strolling through Selfridges, and Strictly Come Dancing contestant Patsy Palmer walking through Shoreditch.

Don't be frilly, Jess!

The Monster star shone as she mingled at a Bel Air mansion.

If only the same could be said for usually-gorgeous Jessica Simpson, 25.

Her honey-kissed looks were almost lost above maddeningly bright red and green frills. Stick to the hotpants, Jess.

Kimberly adds to her Tally

WAIF-LIKE Kimberly Stewart is engaged to her toy-boy Talan Torriero, according to the 21-list actor's publicist, that is.

Rod's daughter apparently showed off her ring at a bash in LA on Wednesday night after 19-year-old Talan got down on one knee.

Torriero's flunky Jack Ketsoyan, who said the pair have been dating for two months, confirmed: "He's engaged."

Talan, who stars on MTV's Laguna Beach, met Kimberly, 26, several months ago and the 6ft 11in stud said recently: "We're having a good time." Hmmm, sounds like marriage material to us... in a parallel universe.

Happy

Still, reports say the couple were deliriously happy at an Xbox 360 bash at a private home in Beverly Hills when Kim showed Nicky Hilton, 22, the five carat diamond trinket designed by hip jeweller Neil Lane.

A mole at the party told us: "Kimberly couldn't take her eyes off Talan and squealed when she saw Nicky."

"She looked so happy as she showed off the ring, she'll be a beautiful bride."

Don't hold your breath though. Kimberly, Rod's eldest daughter with ex-wife Alana, got engaged to childhood sweetheart Cisco Adler, 26, last year and he's now dating OC star Mischa Barton, 19.

However, Kimberly has been going from strength to strength after landing a coveted role in The Simple Life after Nicole Richie, 24, quit.

Maybe she's after Newlyweds now with her MTV beau...

DISHY DAZ FEATHERS HIS NEST

NOT many men can carry off the "fit among feathers" look.

But lovely Darius Danesh, right, was certainly dishy when he pranced and danced with several foxy female entertainers at the Westminster Central Hall in London.

And Daz, 25, seemed in his element as the centre of attention. Other artists to perform at the A Night Under The Stars event included Strictly Come Dancing host Bruce Forsyth, 77, and comic Rory Bremner, 45.

QUICKIE..

★ JUSTIN Hawkins gave up his dream of hosting a celebrity darts show - because telly bosses wanted him to star alongside Abi Titmuss, 29.

The Darkness singer, 30, told GMTV's Lorraine Kelly, 45: "I decided to stop pursuing it because I wanted you and I to present it."

"But the TV people wanted all these Abi Titmuss types, people who are only famous for opening their legs."

Fur's flying over Paris's new pet

FICKLE pet-obsessed Paris Hilton landed herself in hot water after bringing an illegal animal into California. The bumble-headed heiress came back from Las Vegas with a kinkajou - a rare relation of the racoon that she'd mawkishly named Baby Luv. But as Paris, 24, who once owned a ferret, crossed the state line from Nevada her new buddy became persona non grata. A spokesman for the California Department of Fish and Game explained: "We'll send them a letter just to let them know we're aware they have a restricted species."

Lisa Lange, of People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals, fumed: "It seems Paris thinks animals are as disposable as friends and fiancés."

We couldn't have put it better ourselves.

KIDS'

Stars join in charity spectacle

■ by MARIANNA PARTASIDES

SEXY Nikki Sanderson and Billie Piper will be kidding around tonight for telly's Children In Need spectacle.

They'll be joined by singer Madonna, 47, the casts of Emmerdale and Casualty, and even the Prime Minister for the night-long BBC fund-raiser.

As well as the marathon telly show, now its 26th year, organisers are putting on two concerts featuring Status Quo and Girls Aloud in a bid to beat last year's £34million total.

Doctor Who sizzler Billie, 23, who plays Rose Tyler, will make her first appearance with new Doctor David Tennant, 34, in a special episode, which features the return of robot dog K9.

Comic

EastEnders' Mitchell brothers – alias Steve McFadden, 46, and Ross Kemp, 41 – will also be joining in the fun, along with ex-Corrie cracker Nikki, 21, and singer Rachel Stevens, 27.

Even Tony Blair, 52, has agreed to make a fool of himself for the charity – he'll be confronted by comic Jon Culshaw, 37, doing an impression of him.

A BBC insider said: "The Prime Minister very much got into the spirit of the event."

Other highlights will include glamour girl Kate Price, 27, and her new husband Peter Andre, 32, singing a duet, and newsreader Fiona Bruce, 39, flashing her pins.

Veteran host Terry Wogan, 67, said: "It's another show jam-packed with money-raising madness!"

Shock as fish pops out of tap

GRANNY Pauline Rees was stunned when she poured herself a glass of water – and a tiny fish emerged from the tap.

She had already taken a sip when she spotted the half-inch creature lying dead at the bottom of her glass.

Pauline, 56, of Mountain Ash, Mid Glamorgan, said: "I couldn't believe my eyes. I felt sick."

Welsh Water have promised a full investigation. Spokeswoman Lydia Spooner said: "Drinking water is treated to a very high standard."

"This is an extremely unusual incident and we have taken samples."

Dark side of the Moon...

■ EASTENDERS favourite Shane Richie looks as if he's been enjoying a few too many nights knocking them back in the Queen Vic, judging from these pictures.

■ You'd never guess this wild-eyed, gaunt and scruffy character was best known as gentle Alfie Moon. But fans needn't worry that he's hitting the bottle.

■ This is how theatre audiences are seeing 41-year-old Shane as he tours the country playing miser Scrooge in a musical reworking of Dickens' A Christmas Carol.

LYNCH MOB TOLD HOLLY: 'YOU'LL DIE'

A 12-YEAR-OLD girl attempted suicide when school bullies said they'd kill her if she turned up for class the next day.

Holly Chapman downed 14 anti-sickness and hayfever tablets hours after the "lynch mob" issued the chilling threat.

Knife

Luckily, mum Shelagh, 35, found her in her bedroom and rushed her to hospital.

The suicide bid came after Holly had suffered more than a year of torment at the hands of girl bullies.

She's been threatened with a knife, hit with an iron bar, pushed down stairs and beaten unconscious.

Last Tuesday thugs told her

■ by LAURA NEIL

she would be "dead meat" if she turned up at Abbeyfield School in her home town of Chippenham, Wilts.

Holly, who has had her arm and nose broken in the past, decided she'd had enough.

Yesterday she spoke out about her ordeal ahead of National Bullying Week next week.

She said: "When I try to ask the teachers for help, they ignore it. Nothing gets done."

Deputy head Tim Perry said he could not discuss individual cases but added: "As far as I'm concerned, this school does not have a problem with bullying."

Star NEWS

Blobby's back

SPOT ON: Blobby

NOEL Edmonds is about to rake in the cash again, by turning Mr Blobby into a cartoon.

The former top telly star and radio DJ revealed that the clumsy pink and yellow blob is set for a return to the small screen.

Noel, 56, said: "I'm sorry, he IS coming back. We've been approached by an animation company that thinks his time has come again."

"But you won't see me and him appearing together again."

Tooth ordeal

A WOMAN with agonising toothache asked a friend to pull her tooth out with pliers because she couldn't get an NHS dentist.

Janet Young, 52, of Wrexham, North Wales, rang NHS Direct for help but staff said no emergency dentists were available and Janet said she couldn't afford to go private.

She said: "The tooth needed to go. So I had a drink and asked my friend to pull it out, which was all I wanted a dentist to do. I was in agony and it bled a lot but what else could I do?"

NHS Direct said: "We cannot comment on individual cases but we will investigate to see whether there was a problem with the service we provided."

Bob honoured

LIVE Aid founder Bob Geldof is getting a European prize for his promotion of human rights.

The rock star and anti-poverty campaigner, 54, will be given the North-South Prize at a ceremony in the Portuguese parliament in Lisbon on Monday.

Organisers say Bob is being given the human rights prize for his 20 years of work on "African issues", including this year's Live8 event to highlight the Make Poverty History campaign.

RIGHTS: Geldof

Gun boy rap

A BOY of 15 has been charged with manslaughter following the airgun death of 12-year-old boy Alex Cole earlier this year.

Alex died without recovering consciousness hours after a pellet shot through his eye and penetrated his brain as he played at his best friend's house on May Bank Holiday Monday.

Both the boys were pupils at Northcliffe comprehensive school in Conisbrough, near Doncaster, South Yorkshire, and the accused boy will appear at Doncaster Youth Court next Tuesday.

The accused boy's 39-year-old father has also been charged with unlawful possession of a firearm and will appear before Doncaster magistrates later today.

Who bought it?

SOLD OFF: Dalek

A DALEK that battled arch-enemy Doctor Who in the hit telly show has been sold for £36,000.

The Dalek, which was restored by staff at Madame Tussauds in London, was snapped up by a mystery phone bidder at auction. It had starred alongside Tom Baker, now 71, in the 1979 adventure series The Daleks.

Jon Baddeley, of auctioneers Bonhams, said: "This was a fascinating item which attracted a huge amount of interest."

Racy women

THE number of women drivers convicted of speeding has risen by a quarter - because they can't use their feminine charms to "sweet talk" the cameras.

Experts said that before cameras were introduced women could often charm their way out of trouble when pulled over by a male officer.

The AA's Ruth Bridger said: "There was once a case that if you were a woman a policeman might be more lenient and you could get away with a warning."

"But speed cameras don't care who's driving and they don't accept excuses."

The number of male prosecutions has fallen 14%, but men still account for 82% of convictions - five times the number of women.

JOE MOTT'S AWARD WINNING HOT

AT THE UK
MUSIC HALL
OF FAME

EDITED BY KIM DAWSON
& CARL STROUD

WHO rocker Pete Townshend has added his voice to the growing clamour to find the UK Music Hall Of Fame a proper home. The axe-slinger paid tribute to The Kinks and was also inducted alongside Roger Daltrey. But he spat: "This is just a fing TV show. We need a building."

Jimi tribute is halted for a Slash

ROCKER Slash sparked up on stage after losing interest in Mitch Mitchell's rambling tribute to Jimi Hendrix.

Mitchell, 58, drummer with the legendary Jimi Hendrix Experience, joined Slash to present Jimi's step-sister Janey with his posthumous award, but got carried away with effusive praise that went on for more than 10 minutes.

But Slash, 40, got his own back in a musical tribute to maestro Hendrix.

During Stone Free he got so immersed in a mammoth guitar solo that the track ground to a chaotic halt after 10 minutes of fretboard fireworks.

MOTT

NEW Order had the chords to their songs played on an autocone so they remembered what to play. Singer Bernard Sumner, 49, said afterwards: "We never got any awards when we were punk so it's a great honour."

SHOT

Damon blasts Blair

DAMON Albarn slammed organisers after discovering Tony Blair had contributed to the hall of fame ceremony.

The Gorillaz mastermind is an outspoken critic of the Government. So he was furious after watching the Prime Minister pay tribute to The Eurythmics in a pre-recorded message.

Tribute

Damon, 37, fumed: "Call me old fashioned, but who on earth invited Tony Blair here tonight?"

The erstwhile Blur frontman later paid a touching tribute to John Peel.

He introduced the late broadcaster's brother Alan and wife Sheila to the show.

And they accepted John's entry into the hall of fame.

Ozzy: I worship Robbie

OSZDY Osbourne says Robbie Williams is the British music industry's only hope.

The ex-Black Sabbath frontman says he's worried about the music scene despite a flurry of amazing new bands and singer/song-writers this year.

After the heavy metal trailblazers were inducted into the UK Music Hall Of Fame, he lavished praise on the Robster, 31.

He declared: "Downloading has ruined things. Who are going to be the legends of the future? Robbie Williams is the only good one left. "I don't think there's enough melody in songs now. I like hip-hop and rap but where's the melody?"

Ozzy dropped his trousers and bared his backside while performing at the event at London's Alexandra Palace.

Praised

But the 56-year-old star admitted he was "nervous as f". He added: "I tend to wind myself up before a performance but it's what we do best. It's great that we got an award."

He praised his old bandmates - guitarist Tony Iommi, 57, bassist Geezer Butler, 56, and drummer

ONLY HOPE: Robbie's well loved

EXCLUSIVE

Bill Ward, 57 - saying: "If it wasn't for them I wouldn't be here. It's not the Ozzy show."

The family were out to show their full support to Ozzy with X Factor judge Sharon, 53, tearful as her husband thanked her in his speech. Daughter Kelly, 21, and son Jack, 20, also made the ceremony.

Ozzy's new album Under Cover is released on November 28.

FEARS: Ozzy Osbourne

CAUGHT LIVE

UK Music Hall
of Fame
Alexandra Palace

AS befits an evening honouring the biggest stars in music, a slew of big-hitters were on hand to play musical tribute to the inductees.

Precocious jazz man Jamie Cullum (right) kicked proceedings off by tackling Aretha Franklin's Think. Joined by the London Community Gospel Choir he helped out on vocals by the American soul star Leela James, the piano-mangling hobbit acquitted himself surprisingly well.

The Eurythmics were pure class naturally, with gloomy Dave Stewart and cheery Annie rattling through new single I've Got A Life and classic Sweet Dreams.

Bob Dylan was reinterpreted by Alanis Morissette to varying degrees. And The Pretenders also popped up with a sparkling tribute to The Kinks.

TV FALL-OUT: Mischa

Mischa makes a boob

by LIZ HODGSON
SEXY actress Mischa Barton's big telly boob has got fans hot and bothered. Eagled-eyed viewers have spotted a glimpse of her nipple in the hit series The OC.

It happened as the 19-year-old's character got out of bed and her pyjama top slipped. Fans who spotted it have now posted the clip on the internet.

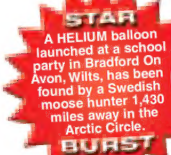

Flash

And according to reports there has also been a complaint to the Federal Communications Commission, which oversees decency in US broadcasting.

It is reported to be probing claims the flash was deliberate.

A spokesman for Fox, which airs the show in the US, said yesterday: "We are not aware of any complaint being filed."

The most notorious flash on US TV was 39-year-old Janet Jackson's Superbowl "wardrobe malfunction".

I'M A WINNER: Smiling Makosi celebrates after winning the right to stay in Britain for five years at the hearing

MAKOSI MERCY

Big Brother babe saved from deportation.. by her bikini

BIG Brother babe Makosi Musambasi dodged eviction from Britain yesterday - thanks to her bikini!

The 25-year-old reality TV star was branded a "failed asylum seeker" by an Asylum and Immigration Court.

But she was allowed to stay because it is too dangerous to force anybody back to Zimbabwe, which is ruled by tyrant dictator Robert Mugabe, 81.

The court heard that her hot-tub antics in a skimpy bikini and same-sex kisses with BB pals have made her one of the most-hated women in her homeland - where she has been called a "low-life lesbian".

After getting the good news tearful

by JAMES WICKHAM

Makosi, a trained cardiac nurse who dressed in a red jacket with matching stilletos, hugged her legal team and said: "Thank God I can stay here in a country that I love."

Her solicitor Philip Barth added: "There is absolutely no shame at all in being a failed asylum seeker."

Tumour

But last night the Home Office warned Makosi they may appeal against the tribunal's decision. A spokesman said: "We do not agree with the tribunal that all Zimbabwean asylum seekers are refugees. As with other countries, we continue to believe claims for asylum should be assessed on their individual merits."

Makosi said she has not been back home since appearing on BB, even though her mother has a brain tumour.

She said: "I feel it's not safe to go back."

"I'm recognised everywhere I go by children and adults and looked at like I'm a homosexual."

"I have violated a lot of cultural rights just by wearing a bikini and even trousers. I would be in danger from even the people on the road."

"The police know who I am and that I am scared."

Home Office lawyers argued Makosi had no right to asylum because she was only allowed to work here as a nurse. But she was granted refugee status for five years.

The Star Says: Page 6
james.wickham@dailystar.co.uk

Queen of BB bitches

DURING this year's Big Brother Makosi became Britain's most hated woman. She schemed and cheated her entire time in the house:

- She lied about being a virgin when she entered the house.
- Insisted she'd had sex with hunky dancer Anthony Hutton, 23, in the pool, despite his denials.
- Claimed to be pregnant, just hours after the pool romp.
- Bitched about best mate Kamel, 19, behind his back.
- Cried crocodile tears in the Diary Room to win sympathy.

He's behind you, Sam!

GANGSTER Johnny Allen can hardly believe his ears. There's sexy Sam Mitchell saying her farewells to Minty. And it means that EastEnders heavy Johnny, played by Billy Murray, 64, has finally got the upper hand over the Mitchell clan.

Sam (Kim Medcalf, 31) is facing jail for covering up the killing of Dirty Den and plans to go on the run.

She reveals all to grease monkey Minty (Cliff Parisi, 44), who reckons she's right to flee. But Johnny will have other ideas...

ROLE BID: Cilla Black

Cilla's date in Dales

SURPRISE, surprise! Cilla Black wants to be in Emmerdale. Her pal Patsy Kensit, who plays arch-schemer Sadie King, is lobbying the ITV1 soap's bosses to give 62-year-old Cilla a special role. Patsy, 37, hopes the veteran singer and telly show host can present a charity version of Blind Date in the Woolpack pub. An insider said: "Patsy reckons it would be a lorry lorry laughs for the show's fans!"

TRACY'S HOME ALONE SHAME

She abandons tot to party at Rovers

CORRIE superbitch Tracy Barlow plumbs new depths as a heartless mum when she abandons baby Amy to go out on the razz.

She can't find a babysitter on New Year's Eve and dreads the prospect of seeing in 2006 on her own.

When lover Charlie Stubbs invites her to the Rovers she leaves Amy "home alone" in bed.

Silence

In heart-wrenching scenes, the cameras switch between the noisy revellers in the Rovers and the stony silence in Amy's room.

And viewers will be left fretting that something terrible is about to happen to the tot while Tracy (Kate Ford, 28) is out partying with builder Charlie (Bill Ward, 38).

An insider said: "It is very powerful stuff and echoes the real-life issue of children being left alone at Christmas."

"Babysitters at this time are always at a premium and the temptation to leave children alone, no matter how briefly, sometimes becomes irresistible for parents wanting to party. A lot of Corrie fans will find the scenes disturbing, especially when the cameras return to the baby all alone in an empty house.

"Kate admitted when she found out about the storyline that she found it really chilling." The part of daughter Amy is played by twin 20-month-old girls Rachel and Sarah Corker.

TEMPTRESS Tina O'Brien wants fans to help an animal charity.

The Street babe, 22, who plays sexy single mum Sarah Platt, was helped by the Animals In Distress sanctuary in Irlam, Manchester, when her cat Miffy savaged a sparrow. Tina took the bird to the sanctuary for treatment.

Though the bird died, Tina was so impressed by their work she has offered to attend their annual fair tomorrow to help pull in the crowds.

Tina said: "They operate on a shoestring budget and do a wonderful job."
